1. REVISION TO PROCEDURE 12.806, PROCESSING AND ACCESSING SEALED CONVICTION/NON-CONVICTION RECORDS

Procedure 12.806, Processing and Accessing Sealed Conviction/Non-Conviction Records, has been revised to reflect current processes.

This revision is effective immediately. Personnel should review Procedure 12.806 in its entirety. The revised procedure is available on the Department intranet and web page.

2. DEPARTMENT PERSONNEL RECOGNIZED WITH AWARDS BY THE HAMILTON COUNTY POLICE ASSOCIATION

Two members of the Department were recognized and honored by the Hamilton County Police Association (HCPA) at its annual Awards Banquet on January 15, 2015. The Colonel Emil J. Otting Award for Service was presented to Lieutenant Bruce Hoffbauer, and the Lieutenant Robert Hovater Award for Valor was presented to Police Officer Dennis Zucker.

Lieutenant Bruce Hoffbauer was awarded the Colonel Emil J. Otting Award for Service for his dedication to duty and commitment to the Cincinnati Police Department. As the Traffic Unit Commander, Lt. Hoffbauer manages the Traffic Unit and the Motorcycle Squad. The Motorcycle Squad is routinely called upon to handle dignitary escorts, including visits to Cincinnati by the President of the United States, Members of Congress, State Governors, etc. The Motorcycle Squad also provides funeral escort for fallen law enforcement officers and members of the United States Armed Forces killed in action. Most recently, the Motorcycle Squad was featured as a part of the escort for New York City Police Officers Rafael Ramos and Wenjian Liu.

Police Officer Dennis Zucker received the Lieutenant Robert Hovater Award for Valor for his willingness to risk his own life to save a young girl. Officer Zucker located a 16 year old female sitting on the edge of the I-275 Bridge, overlooking the Ohio River. The young woman was in a very emotional state and contemplating suicide. Officer Zucker calmly spoke to the young lady in an attempt to get her down from the bridge. The young woman suddenly shifted her weight and leaned forward as if she was going to jump off the bridge. Officer Zucker, risking his own safety, rushed forward and grabbed the young woman, pulling her to safety. Officer Zucker quickly secured the young woman to prevent her from trying to harm herself again.

3. LEADS ONLINE ADDED TO RECORDS MANAGEMENT SYSTEM (RMS)

Technology and Systems Section has added a Leads Online question to the Closure area of an RMS Case Report. When an officer picks a type of Closure, the "Leads Online search performed?" field will appear in the Closure Tab, and is required to be completed. If the answer is "Yes," three additional fields will appear requesting information on the "Type of Recovery" (Information Only, Property and None), the value of the recovery and a field for additional information, if necessary.

This change to RMS is effective immediately. Questions regarding this change or any RMS issue should be directed to Lieutenant Lee Carmichael, Special Projects Unit, 263-8130.

4. S.T.A.R.S. DATA

12.806 PROCESSING AND ACCESSING SEALED CONVICTION/NON-CONVICTION RECORDS

Reference:

Manual of Rules and Regulations – 1.07

Records Section Standard Operating Procedure

Ohio Revised Code – Sealing of Record of Conviction, Sections 2953.31 – 2953.61

Purpose:

To outline methods of processing records and documents created in conjunction with conviction/non-conviction records requiring sealing in accordance with orders from the courts.

To ensure compliance with the law in all such instances.

To outline the types of sealed records maintained by Records Section and how each may be legally utilized by police officers.

To centralize the authority and responsibility for maintaining and coordinating processing of sealed Cincinnati records with Cincinnati Police Records Section.

Policy:

According to State law, no person who is employed by the Cincinnati Police Department, with the exception of the Records Section Supervising Management Analyst, shall knowingly release, disseminate, or otherwise make any information contained in a sealed non-conviction record jacket available to, or discuss any information contained in same, with any person not employed by the Department.

Information:

The Ohio Legislature has passed several statutes which provide the means for persons with conviction and non-conviction history to apply for court orders which require the expungement (for purposes of Ohio law, a "Sealing") of those conviction and non-conviction records and other related indexes.

A computer hit will result whenever a query is performed relative to a person with a sealed conviction record that was sealed after September 26, 1984.

Non-conviction records sealed after September 26, 1984, will not result in a computer hit as a result of a query. There is no index to sealed non-conviction records sealed after September 26, 1984, available to anyone other than Ohio agency Records Section Supervising Management Analyst.

Court sealing orders after September 26, 1984, may require certain actions be performed at the direction of the Records Section Supervising Management Analyst.

Procedure:

- A. Accessing Sealed Conviction Records
 - 1. When performing a query on an individual with a sealed conviction record, the following message will appear: "For more information, contact the entering agency's Record Unit supervisor." This is an indication that some type of sealed record may be on file with the indicated agency.
 - 2. Access to and copies of sealed Ohio conviction records can be obtained by any police officer under the following conditions:
 - a. If the subject of the sealed record is under arrest or the officer intends to sign a warrant for the subject and the officer wishes to determine if the defendant could be charged as a "Second Offender" on the basis of a previous offense which had been sealed.
 - 1) In a criminal proceeding under the above conditions, a sealed conviction record is admissible evidence of a "Second Offender" status.
 - b. If an officer was personally involved in the sealed case, and is the subject of a civil action arising out of that case, the officer may then use the sealed record in his/her defense.
- B. Accessing Sealed Ohio Non-Conviction Records
 - 1. Any Cincinnati police officer may view the "Investigatory Work Product" portion of any sealed non-conviction record upon request to the Records Section Supervising Management Analyst. Requests will be made on a Form 17 via the chain of command.
 - 2. Other law enforcement agencies, under certain conditions, may view certain Cincinnati sealed non-conviction records. Application must be made to the Records Section Supervising Management Analyst.
 - 3. Cincinnati police officers, under certain conditions, may view the "Investigatory Work Product" portion of non-conviction records in the custody of other Ohio or non-Ohio police agencies. Application must be made to the Records Section Supervising Management Analyst of that agency.
- C. Processing and Coordinating Court Ordered Sealings
 - 1. Upon receipt of a court order to seal records, the Records Section Supervising Management Analyst will:
 - a. Ensure the Records Section sealing process is carried out according to existing Records Section Standard Operating Procedure.
 - b. Notify affected district/section/unit commanders and administrative sergeants via e-mail and Form 17, on a weekly basis, regarding new court orders received and of the requirements for sealing a record.

- 1) The e-mail notification will include a link to the Expungement/Record Sealing folder on the H: drive. District commanders and other designated personnel will have “read only” access to the Expungement/Record Sealing folder.
 - 2) Hard copies will be forwarded to the district requiring the district commander’s signature on the Form 17 for verification of compliance.
 - c. Records Section will ensure all duplicate electronic copies of court orders saved in the Expungement/Record Sealing folder are expunged after sealing the hard copies.
2. Upon receipt of the weekly e-mail notification and the Form 17 from the Records Section Supervising Management Analyst, indicating action to be taken as a result of a court ordered sealing, the district/section/unit commander will:
- a. Refer the request to the appropriate personnel for completion, sign all Form 17s, and forward with the required to the Records Section Supervising Management Analyst for sealing in special files.

Police Officer Victoria Wysel
District Two Investigative Unit

Please accept this commendation and my appreciation for your dedication to duty in the investigation of a recent theft from an elderly victim. Specifically:

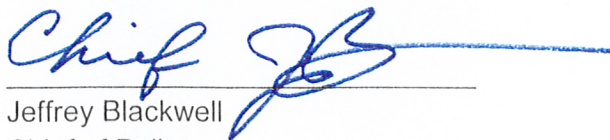

On December 18, 2014, you initiated an investigation related to the theft of more than $70,000.00 in jewelry from an elderly woman. The victim's property was removed from a safe in her residence. The initial investigation did not identify likely suspects, except the fact that several nurses/caregivers frequented the residence to attend to medical needs of the victim.

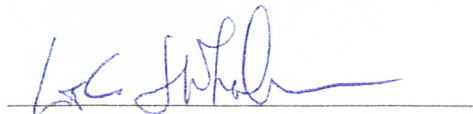

The case follow-up utilized traditional investigative techniques but failed to identify additional evidence to narrow the field of suspects. This included the use of Leads On-Line software, which found no transactions for any of the identified persons or changes in lifestyle.

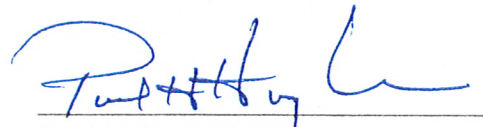

Officer Wysel, you continued in your quest and began looking at associates of each, their recent transactions and common address, etc. As a result, you identified a person of interest with the same address as one of the caregivers. This person had recently pawned $15,000 in jewelry that matched a portion of the property taken in the offense. Based upon this information, you interviewed the nurse associated with the person of interest. The interview resulted in a confession, the return of more than $55,000 in jewelry which was taken in the offense, and the arrest of the offenders.

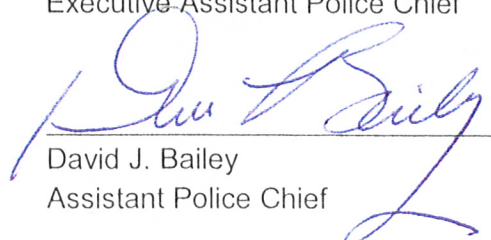

Officer Wysel, you are deserving of this commendation for your investigative skills, tenacity and commitment to assisting victims of crime.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Blackwell

Please accept my thanks and official commendation for your research of crime data and the production and presentation of analytical materials used during command staff briefings:

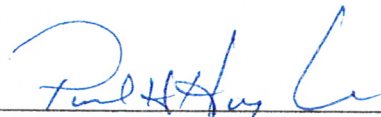

On August 16, 2014, the Cincinnati Police Department, District Four Crime Analyst, was reassigned as a result of a strategic realignment of personnel. From that point forward you volunteered to assume many of the analyst duties in addition to meeting the demands of your current assignment. You were tasked with providing District Four personnel with updates regarding the latest crime trends and producing presentations of analytical materials for command staff briefings. Your work product was exceptional and well received at all levels. The timely updates of shooting data were accurate and useful in terms of developing intervention strategies implemented throughout District Four. Your work further served to enlighten my entire command staff on the initiatives, responses, and results of those interventions.

You are deserving of this commendation for your dedication to duty while going above and beyond the call of duty to help ensure the safety and security of not only the residents of our community, but the officers' assigned duties within those communities too.

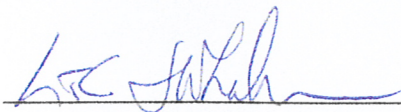

Sincerely,

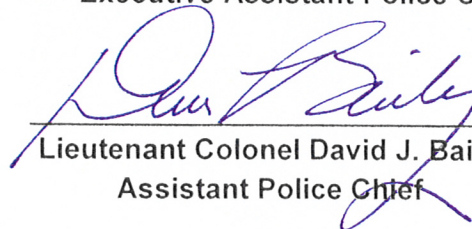

Jeffrey Blackwell

Chief Blackwell,

I just wanted to complement you on one of your officers, Sgt. Bill Halusek.

I e-mailed Bill and asked if he could spare some time to come up to my school (Scarlet Oaks) and speak with my Sociology seniors about Cincinnati street gangs and your Intelligence Unit.

He came up today and did an excellent job of explaining what he does, how the unit combats local violent crime, CIRV, etc. My students (and I) learned a lot.

We really appreciate his time and wanted you to know he was a great speaker.

Thanks,

Mike Thompson

Dear Captain Butler:

It is not often we think of police officers as genuinely kind, caring, compassionate, willing to go the extra mile; especially nowadays with all the negativity and distrust in our neighborhoods and media.

Today, first in meeting Officer Grant and secondly Officer Gordon, I met two outstanding, professional officers who fit all the adjectives above and more!! They could not locate immediate family members but were persistent until someone who could help was eventually found (me). I know their job had already been challenging to discover a deceased man in not so good of shape and then be detectives to find family. They operated with poise, patience, and empathy. They represented the Cincinnati Police Department WELL! You all should be proud. I am!

Best Regards and THANK YOU,

Leslie C. Smith

Hello Michelle,

Happy New Years! I hope that you had a wonderful Christmas! Sorry that I am so late getting to you but I just wanted to send an email expressing my gratitude for the opportunity to intern with the Cincinnati Police Department. What an honor and privilege it was for me! Before this internship I only knew what I was taught in the classroom about policing. We live in a generation that seems to discredit the true sacrifice made by the men and women that serve our community. I wish that everyone had the opportunity to see firsthand what you guys do (officers and civilians as well). I walked away from this internship with the upmost respect for each individual I was able to meet at the Cincinnati Police Department. It was awesome of you to allow me to shadow you and see policing from a civilian's point of view! I looked forward to the days that I was scheduled to come out.

I think something that I gained the most from this experience was seeing how much that the CPD cares for and does for the community. Before this experience I was only briefly taught about community oriented policing. Seeing it for myself was awesome. So many programs and each of the officers put their heart and soul into what they do!!! I also got to see how much the officers that I rode along with cared for the community as well. All of them being unbiased toward the citizens they came in contact with and used their discretion so well.

At the beginning of this internship I was honestly nervous about how I would juggle being a single working mother and full time student was going to pan out. You were so flexible with me and allowed me to put my hours in however I needed too, I greatly appreciate that!!! My last night there I was so sad that this experience had come to an end. I made memories that I will carry with me forever. I can also apply what I learned from this to my future endeavors within the criminal justice system!! Please extend my thanks to everyone else as well! I miss all of you guys!!!

PS- My children STILL talk about the experience of "shop with a cop". It was such a neat opportunity for them (and me). Thank you for picking them! It was truly a blessing to us!

Thank you again,

Tiffany Straub

Dear Chief Blackwell,

On September 27, 2014 one of our officers was involved in an officer involved shooting. A home video surveillance system was able to capture the majority of the incident and was retrieved by investigators. As investigators attempted to review the recording, it was discovered the file format was not useable on any device or program we had available. Detective Eric Catron called upon the assistance and expertise from one of your officers, Alice Stallcup.

With very little notice, Officer Stallcup was able to take the raw video file and convert it to a format we were able to view from a computer. Officer Stallcup worked diligently on this video to ensure the new file format would be viewable for members of our Investigative Unit and Command Staff. Although this may sound like a simple task, Officer Stallcup had to overcome many technological challenges with this raw video format to make it useable.

I would like to thank Officer Alice Stallcup for her expertise, professionalism, and continued assistance to the Springfield Township Police Department. She is a true asset to your organization.

Sincerely,

Lieutenant Brian Uhl
